When will films play?

Main Attractions

Film Booking. Our main films play week-to-week from Friday through Thursday. Every Monday we determine what new films will start on Friday, what current films will end on Thursday, and what current films will continue through Friday for another week. All films are subject to this week-to-week decision-making process. We try to play all of our Main Attraction films as soon as possible. (For more info on the business of booking films and why some films play longer or sooner than others, visit our website.)

When Will a Film's Run Start?

After we decide on Monday (Tuesday at the latest) what new films will start on Friday, we immediately let you know on our website and on our hotline.

We'll send you an email message every Tuesday as to what is coming and going on Friday. (Sign up by emailing us at comments@CountyTheater.org.)

If there is a particular film that you don't want to miss, call our box office (215/345-6789 ext. 6), and leave your name and telephone number and the particular film that you want to see (on the answering machine is ok). We'll put that on our "Film Call List," and then we'll call you on the right Monday and tell you that your film is starting that Friday. (Two requests: please leave a telephone number where you have an answering machine, and please don't request every film on the flyer.)

And When Will a Film's Run End?

This decision happens by the same process – we decide on Monday which films will end on Thursday. Again, we immediately let you know on our website and on our hotline. We build in a week for the film to play its last week. This gives us a buffer, so that next week's film does not get cut off if people buy tickets. It also gives us a cushion to make changes to the shows at the last minute if the show does not last as long as expected.

We are happy to announce that the Ambler Theater, the County Theater, and the Bryn Mawr Film Institute will have reciprocal admission benefits. Your membership will allow you $5.50 admission at the other theaters, effective January 1, 2006. (You must present your membership card to obtain this discount.)

What is the County Theater?
The County Theater is a nonprofit movie theater that shows independent, art, and foreign films, as well as special events like Saturday Kids Matinees and classic Hollywood films. We also have filmmaker appearances, discussion groups, and lectures.

Who is running the Theater?
"County Theater, Inc.", is a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt nonprofit corporation which owns and runs the theater. Its local Board of Directors oversees all operations.

Become a Member!
Your membership is the foundation of our success. Please fill out and return the attached membership form. (Or join online - it's easy and secure.) Your financial support is tax-deductible. Memberships run for one year from date of joining.

Put your star in the sidewalk!
Your additional gifts and support make us even better. Your donations are fully tax-deductible. And you can put your name on a bronze star in the sidewalk! Contact our Business Office at (215) 348-1878.

Become a Business Sponsor!
Receive prominent recognition for your business in exchange for helping our nonprofit theater. Recognition comes in a variety of ways - on our silver screens, in our brochures, and on our website. Call us at (215) 348-1878 for details.

Fine Print
The official registration and financial information of the County Theater, Inc. may be obtained from the Pennsylvania Department of State by calling toll-free, within Pennsylvania, 1-800-732-0999. Registration does not imply endorsement.

Special Thanks
The County Theater receives funding support through a grant from the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts, a state agency funded by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency.

Put your star in the sidewalk!
A Good Woman
Great Britain/Italy, Mike Barker, 1 hr 33 min
In this visually beguiling and highly amusing adaptation of Oscar Wilde’s Lady Windermere’s Fan, Helen Hunt plays a Manhattan socialite who flees to Europe in search of a match that will restore her financial security. Reset in 1930’s Italy, things begin simply but soon become delightfully intertwined and comically complicated. Scarlett Johansson is excellent as Lady Windermere and Tom Wilkinson steals the movie with his exapt “Tuppy.”

Mrs. Palfrey at the Claremont
Great Britain, Dan Ireland, 1 hr 48 min
The tale of an unlikely friendship between an elderly widow and a young writer, MRS. PALFREY is an endearing and enormously likeable film. Joan Plowright stars as a woman relocated to London and it’s one of her best roles in years. Sort of a British version of Harold and Maude, but in a gentler vein, this film is delightful.

Art School Confidential
USA, Terry Zwigoff, 1 hr 42 min
The odd and acerbic director Terry Zwigoff (Ghost World) returns with this typically off-center film about an aspiring and lovesick artist who enrolls in art school to woo the girl of his dreams. An all-star cast, including John Malkovich, Angelica Huston, and Jim Broadbent, supports this satiric adventure, with Max Minghella in the starring role. Like Ghost World, this film is adapted from the work of comix artist Daniel Clowes.

Friends with Money
USA, Nicole Holofcener, 1 hr 28 min
Nicole Holofcener (Lovely and Amazing!), returns to familiar territory with this engaging story of four life-long girlfriends. Jennifer Aniston, Joan Cusack, Catherine Keener and Frances McDormand) whose intertwined and comically complicated. Felicity Huffman gives a comedic and wonderfully honest performance as a transsexual who ends up driving across the country with a son she didn’t know. TRANSAMERICA is laugh-out-loud funny, tartly off-color, and ultimately a touching journey of self-discovery.

The White Countess
Great Britain, James Ivory, 2 hr 10 min
Set in Shanghai in the late 1930’s, THE WHITE COUNTESS is about a disillusioned former US diplomat and a White Russian countess who has been reduced to a compromised life. Their decadent existence is set against the impending outbreak of WWII and the invasion of the city by the Japanese. The incredible cast features Ralph Fiennes, Natalie Richardson, Lynn Redgrave and Vanessa Redgrave. This is the last of the “Merchant-Ivory” productions.
SPECIAL PROGRAMS AT 3 THEATERS. The County Theater, the Ambler Theater and the Bryn Mawr Film Institute have joined together to present special film programs. Together we will increase your options to see classic and unusual films on the big screen. Unlike our MAIN ATTRACTIONS, these offerings are at fixed times and places (and not all offerings play at all locations), so check closely for details.

The Woodsman
Producers Lee Daniels and Brook Lenzest
2004 - 1 hr 27 min - USA - d: Nicole Kassell
Philadelphia native Kevin Bacon delivers a ground-breaking performance playing a convicted pedophile who returns to his hometown after twelve years in prison. This superb film was shot in Philadelphia. The screening is hosted by Bryn Mawr College's Graduate School of Social Work and Social Research, and will be followed by a discussion with producers Lee Daniels and Brook Lenzest and with Dr. Dana Becker.

The Evolution of Cary Grant
A Film Forum with Carrie Rickey
We are delighted to welcome Philadelphia Inquirer film critic Carrie Rickey, who will screen film clips and discuss the life and career of cinematic legend Cary Grant. From his early days in screwball comedies like Bringing Up Baby and His Girl Friday to his later dramatic roles in Hitchcock's North by Northwest, Cary Grant gave some of the most enduring performances ever to come from Hollywood. (Both evenings are free for County, Ambler and Bryn Mawr members.)

2006 Black Maria Film and Video Festival
We are pleased to welcome back the Black Maria Film and Video Festival, an award-winning festival committed to the exhibition of cutting-edge independent films. Each evening will have a different program of new and highly creative films—documentary, narrative, animation, experimental, and more. Both programs will be introduced and discussed by festival directors John Columbus. (Both evenings are free for County, Ambler and Bryn Mawr members.)

Queen of the Mountain
Presented by Lou DiCrescenzo
Bride of the Monster
1955 - 1 hr 8 min - USA
Film preservationist Lou DiCrescenzo introduces and presents one of the few remaining original prints of Ed Wood's B-movie classic BRIDE OF THE MONSTER. In his last film, Bela Lugosi plays Dr. Varnoff, a deranged scientist hell-bent on transforming ordinary mortals into supermen with the use of atomic energy. Shock-laden and gleefully bizarre, this is Ed Wood at ‘his best’. (No intro for midnight show.)

The Thing About My Folks
Presented by the Bucks Mont JCC.
2005 – 56 min - USA
d: Martha Goell Lubell
Filmmaker Martha Goell Lubell will follow the screening.

Ambler Theater’s 3rd Birthday
Party & Oscar Celebration
All are invited to celebrate the Ambler Theater’s 3rd birthday. Watch the Academy Awards on the Silver Screen and enjoy refreshments throughout the evening. For information visit AmblerTheater.org or call 215-348-1878.

The Philadelphia Film Festival continues to entertain and amaze even the most seasoned festivalgoers, showcasing 300 films from over 50 countries. Selections include narrative, documentary, and the sci-fi/cyberpunk film \textit{Blade Runner}. The film premiered in last year's Philadelphia Film Festival and has since toured North American Film Festivals. A Q&A with the director and members of the cast and crew will occur directly after the screening.

Reels on Wheels: Philadelphia Film Fest Encore! It is with great enthusiasm that we host an encore selection of great films from this year's Philadelphia Film Festival. Selections will include documentaries, great narrative films that you'll never see in theaters, and sneak previews of upcoming releases. Specific films and show times will be announced. This is a new encore sampling of Philadelphia's world-class film festival. Do not miss this unique opportunity!

Chinatown 1974 - USA - 2 hr 11 min - d: Roman Polanski
\textit{CHINATOWN} is an intricate mystery starring Jack Nicholson as an \textit{i}private eye who becomes ensnared in a tale of greed and corruption that is both personal and much larger. Roman Polanski directs with great flair and caustic cynicism. Co-starring Faye Dunaway and John Huston.

On the Waterfront 1954 - USA - 1 hr 48 min - d: Elia Kazan
\textit{ON THE WATERFRONT} is a gritty portrait of New York dock workers, \textit{ON THE WATERFRONT} is a masterpiece of classic American cinema. Revolutionary in its use of location shooting as well as having some of the era's best "method acting", this powerful film is still alive and fresh today. Marion Brando gives a blistering performance as the mug who "coulda been a contender". Also with Karl Malden, Rod Steiger, and Eva Marie Saint.

Cellar 2009 – USA – 1 hr 35 min – d: Ben Hickernell
We are happy to welcome area filmmaker Ben Hickernell in presenting his award-winning Philadelphia production. \textit{CELLAR} is about two former friends who wake up locked in a cellar. All they have is canned food, a tickle of water and a gun with a single bullet. The film premiered in last year's Philadelphia Film Festival and has since toured North American Film Festivals. A Q&A with the director and members of the cast and crew will occur directly after the screening.

"Going Native": Assuming Indigenous Identity
A Film Forum with Adrienne Redd
Film scholar Adrienne Redd will screen and discuss clips from several films depicting white men being assimilated into Native American society. Included are classics like \textit{Little Big Man}, more recent films such as \textit{Michael Mann's The Last of the Mohicans}, as well this year's \textit{The New World} from Terrence Malick. (This evening is free for County, Ambler and Bryn Mawr members.)

Movies Look At Moviemaking
A Film Forum with Jennifer Steinberg
Ever since there have been movies, filmmakers have been fascinated with the magical, elusive qualities of filmmaking. Some are poignant (\textit{Sunset Boulevard}), some are full of independent spirit (\textit{American Movie}), some are surreal (\textit{Adaptation}), and some are deliciously bitchy (\textit{The Player}). Film scholar Jennifer Steinberg will screen film clips and present a thought-provoking journey into the world of films that look at filmmaking. (The Ambler evening is free for County and Ambler members.)

Elevator to the Gallows
1958 - 1 hr 28 min - France - d. Louis Malle

Louis Malle’s first film is wonderfully alive as it mixes film noir with a new wave sensibility. When a woman and her lover conspire to murder her husband, their plans begin to unravel. Featuring an amazing musical score by Miles Davis, this classic film has been rescued with a beautiful new black and white print.

The Best of the Diamond Screen Film Festival 2006
Showcase of Temple University Student Films
Join us for three different evenings of the most creative and outstanding student work from Temple University’s Film School, including documentary, narrative, experimental and animation films and video. Each evening will feature a different selection of Senior and Graduate Films both from the region and from around the world. Presented by the filmmakers and Temple University’s Department of Film and Media Studies.

We are happy to report that the County Theater was the sole theater honored this year on the Pennsylvania’s Historic Preservation Poster produced by the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission. This poster honors all of Pennsylvania’s Historic Theaters and will be distributed to libraries, schools, and other public spaces across the entire state.

Congratulations to our staff, board members, volunteers, business sponsors, and supporters.

Due to space limitations, only members at the Producer level and above are listed. All donors are listed on the Theater Honor Roll board located in the Theater’s inner lobby for the coming year. Thank you for your generous support.
