Be a Member
Become a member of the non-profit County Theater and show your support for good films and a cultural landmark. See back panel for a membership form.

Policies
Children under 6 – Children under age 6 will not be admitted to our “Regular Films.” However, all age children are welcome to our special “Kids Films” series.

Late Arrivals – The Theater reserves the right to stop selling tickets (and/or seating patrons) after a film has started.

Outside Food and Drink – Patrons are not permitted to bring outside food and drink into the theater.

The County Theater has wheelchair accessible auditoriums and restrooms, and is equipped with hearing enhancement devices. Please see the theater manager when you arrive.

When will films play?
Main Attractions. Our main films play week-to-week from Fridays through Thursdays. Every Monday we determine what new films will start that Friday and what current films will end on Thursday or continue for another week. All of our main attraction films are subject to this weekly decision. After we decide on Mondays, we immediately let you know our plans on our website, on our hotline, and in our weekly email blast. (For more info on the business of booking films, visit our website.)

Special Programs. Our special programs are generally scheduled for specific dates and times, which are listed in this Previews brochure and on our website.

Make sure that we have your email address
We can keep you up-to-date on all of our film scheduling and events via our weekly email mail notices. Visit our website to sign up and then stay plugged into our latest news.

Give us your feedback
Your film experience is the most important thing to us, so we welcome your feedback. Please let us know what we can do better. Call (215) 348-1878, or email us at comments@CountyTheater.org

MAILING OF PREVIEWS – TO MEMBERS ONLY
We mail copies of Previews only to our current members. Others may access the brochure on our website or pick up a copy at the theater. This is a cost-saving and environment-friendly measure. Thank you for your understanding.
How can you support the County Theater?

Be a member. Your membership is the foundation of our success. Please fill out and return the attached membership form. (Or join online – it’s easy and secure.) Your financial support is tax-deductible. Memberships run for one year from date of joining.

Become a sponsor. Receive prominent recognition for your business in exchange for helping our nonprofit theater. Recognition comes in a variety of ways – on our silver screens, in our brochures, and on our website. Call us at (215) 348-1878.

Put your star in the sidewalk. Your additional gifts and support make us even better. Your donations are fully tax-deductible. And you can put your name on a bronze star in the sidewalk! Contact our Business Office at (215) 348-1878.

How does the County Theater run?

“County Theater, Inc.” is a 501 (c) (3) tax-exempt nonprofit corporation which owns and runs the theater. Gore; Ellen Happ; Bill Lieser; Jack McMillin; Scott Petersen; Peter Reiss; Diana Resek; Joel Stewart; Lou White; and John Toner, Executive Director. The official registration and financial information on County Theater, Inc. may be obtained from the Pennsylvania Department of State by calling toll-free, within Pennsylvania, 1-800-732-0999. Registration does not imply endorsement.

Special Thanks

The County Theater receives funding support through a grant from the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts, a state agency funded by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency.
The Imaginarium of Doctor Parnassus
Great Britain – 2 hr 2 min – Terry Gilliam
A magical fantasy from Terry Gilliam in the mode of his Baron Munchausen. It features Heath Ledger’s last performance, a role that was only half completed. So, Gilliam made the decision to finish the film with Johnny Depp, Jude Law and Colin Farrell standing in for Ledger in the fantasy “Imaginarium” sequences. This remarkably coherent film is both amusing and, at times, brilliant.

The Young Victoria
Great Britain – 1 hr 42 min – Jean-Marc Vallee
Emily Blunt stars as Queen Victoria in this film that chronicles the monarch’s rise to the crown and her romance with Prince Albert. It’s a lovely production with gorgeous locations, fabulous costumes and truly excellent performances. With Rupert Friend, Jim Broadbent, Paul Bettany, and Miranda Richardson.

Broken Embraces
Spain – 2 hr 8 min – Pedro Almodovar w/subtitles
Almodovar’s latest is his fourth picture with Penelope Cruz. About a writer who was blinded in an auto accident (for starters), this gorgeous film is half noir and half melodrama. Its intricate plot is enhanced by gripping performances, stunning cinematography and Almodovar’s usual stylistic flair.

Bad Lieutenant
USA – 2 hr 1 min – Werner Herzog
Subtitled “Port of Call New Orleans,” this remake is the twisted tale of a good cop gone bad. Nicolas Cage throws himself into an “enthusiastic” performance and master director Herzog puts his unpredictable spin on the action. Is it an artistically-sophisticated social commentary or a tawdry B film? Or both? In any event, it’s pure unmitigated cinema and an awesome guilty pleasure.

Paris
France – 2 hr 10 min – Cedric Klapisch w/subtitles
PARIS is a cinematic love letter to the City of Lights. Starting with the story of a man who is awaiting a heart transplant, the film unfolds into a meditation on the city and its inhabitants as the man becomes aware of his mortality as well as his surroundings. Featuring a fine performance from Juliette Binoche, the film explodes with remarkable acting, sets, and a love of life and family.
The Private Lives of Pippa Lee
USA – 1 hr 40 min – Rebecca Miller
An exceptionally well-made family drama starring Robin Wright Penn as a woman who marries an older man (Alan Arkin). Funny and touching and unexpected in its developments. Not that anything significant happens, but it charts a woman’s life with charm and lightness, style and feeling. And that’s pretty special.

The Last Station
Great Britain – 1 hr 50 min – Michael Hoffman
THE LAST STATION is a drama about the life and marriage of Russian literary giant Leo Tolstoy, featuring Christopher Plummer and Helen Mirren. The elderly Tolstoy has thrown his domestic world into chaos by suggesting that he will leave his property and literary legacy to “the Russian people.” Paul Giamatti plays a long-term family advisor and James McAvoy is a young man who steps into the unexpected turmoil.

Me and Orson Welles
USA – 1 hr 47 min – Richard Linklater
Richard Linklater’s latest is a drama about a 1937 production of Julius Caesar by the great Orson Welles. The film focuses on the life of a young man cast in the play, but the indisputable highlight is the extraordinary portrayal of the American boy wonder by British actor Christian McKay. At times it’s possible to forget that you’re watching an actor and really believe you’re beholding Welles at work. A light and charming presentation. With Claire Danes and Zac Efron.

Fantastic Mr. Fox
USA/Great Britain – 1 hr 31 min – Wes Anderson
This adaptation of the Roald Dahl classic, using stop-motion animation, is a silly, funny “kids film” for adults. From twee-hipster Wes Anderson, it’s the story of a resourceful fox who battles three evil farmers. Featuring a treasure trove of quirky details, retro-gizmos and sweet-hearted charm, as well as the voice work of Bill Murray, George Clooney, Cate Blanchett, Meryl Streep, and Jason Schwartzman.

Precious
USA – 1 hr 49 min – Lee Daniels
Raw, vibrant and resoundingly hopeful, PRECIOUS is the story of a young woman determined to overcome immense obstacles. Claireece Jones is a 16-year-old African-American girl, living in Harlem in 1987, pregnant a second time by incest. Beset, as well, by an abusive mother and chaos in school, she enters an alternative school, where she begins her journey away from darkness and toward love and self-determination. A powerful and unflinching film.

Pirate Radio
Great Britain – 2 hr 1 min – Richard Curtis
This congenial and high-spirited film is about a crew of radio DJ’s in the sixties. At a time when the BBC limited the public air waves, these motley rebels broadcast the best of rock and roll from a boat off the English coast. Featuring an unprecedented soundtrack that includes the Beatles, the Stones, the Beach Boys, the Who, Jimi Hendrix, Smokey Robinson, Cat Stevens and many more, PIRATE RADIO is a musical marvel. With Philip Seymour Hoffman, Bill Nighy, Rhys Ifans.

CINEMATHEQUE WINTER SERIES ‘10

The Cinematheque series contains the combined schedules for both the County Theater and the Ambler Theater.

County: Jan 25 (Mon 7:30)
Ambler: Feb 3 (Wed 7:30)

Lou DiCrescenzo presents Cartoon Capers
Film preservationist Lou DiCrescenzo returns with his zaniest collection of cartoons yet. These rare treasures are a real treat to see on the big screen. Don’t miss this chance to see Bugs Bunny, Honey Half-Witch, the Pink Panther, and more. (Consult website for program specifics.)

County: Feb 8 (Mon 7:30)

The Invisible Man
1931 - 1 hr 11 min - USA - b/w - digital
Universal - d: James Whale - w/Claude Rains, Gloria Stewart
Based on H.G. Wells classic story, THE INVISIBLE MAN tells the ghastly tale of a scientist who finds a way of becoming invisible, but in doing so, he becomes murderously insane. Starring Claude Rains and Gloria Stuart.

Ambler: Feb 10 (Wed 5:30)

Frankenstein
1931 - 1 hr 11 min - USA - b/w - digital
Universal - d: James Whale - w/Boris Karloff
Boris Karloff plays the monster created by Dr. Frankenstein out of corpses. But after he has been brought to life, the monster becomes uncontrollable. This horror classic is a must-see for any horror fan.

Ambler: Feb 24 (Wed 7:30)

The Robot vs. The Aztec Mummy
1958 - 1 hr 5 min - Mexico - b/w - 35mm
d: Rafael Portillo
Lou DiCrescenzo presents his wildest film yet with this rare Mexican horror film. A mad doctor builds a robot in order to steal a valuable Aztec treasure from a tomb guarded by a centuries old living mummy. “See the relentless machine battle the gruesome corpse.” Also featuring vintage trailers.

County: Feb 15 (Mon 7:30)

The Giant from the Unknown
1958 - 1 hr 17 min - USA - b/w - 35mm
d: Richard E. Cunha
From the depths of the Lou DiCrescenzo vault comes this wild tale about a small band of warriors led by a depraved giant of a man known as Vargas. A lightning bolt frees Vargas from a state of suspended animation and sends him out to terrorize a rural mountain village. With vintage trailers.

County: Feb 22 (Mon 7:30)

Let the Right One In 2008 - 1 hr 55 min - Sweden - HD digital
d: Tomas Alfredson - with subtitles
Picked on in school and largely ignored by his divorced parents, 12-year old Oskar’s life is bleak. Looking for companionship and the strength to stand up to his tormentors, he finds friendship with his new neighbor Eli. This horror gem from Sweden takes off when Eli’s secret is revealed.

Ambler: Feb 3 (Wed 7:30)

Love & Death (The Horror)
A mini horror-fest for the bleak mid-winter.

2009 – End of Year Appeal

Dear Friends of the County Theater,

As we come to the end of the new County Theater’s 16th year, we thank you, our friends and members, for all of your support.

Here are the highlights of what we’ve accomplished in 2009:

• Upgraded lobby with double-door vestibules to auditoriums
• More films with the addition of High Definition Digital Projection
• More free events for members
• Professional podium (with PA & Lighting) to better see and hear our guest artists/filmmakers

Challenging financial times have made accomplishing the above more difficult. We have experienced a drop in grant funding, a re-alignment from business sponsors, and a plateau in membership.

We need your support. Your financial support is needed now more than ever. And, your support will be put to good use in our streamlined, efficient operation.

PLEASE CONSIDER AN END-OF-YEAR GIFT. Your special gift will help support our Special Programming. It will also help defray such costs as our Quarterly Previews Magazine, our newly re-designed web-site and our upgraded ticketing and concession sales stations.

To make a gift today, use the form below or visit our website at CountyTheater.org (an easy and convenient way to make a secure gift).

Thank you for all of your support, and see you at the Movies.
