Main Attractions

What main films will play at the County? This section lists the Main Attractions that we intend to play in the coming weeks. Additional unlisted films will also become available. This list is only an educated guess, though, since film release plans often change.

When will these main films play?
Scheduling our Main Attractions is week-to-week. On Monday, we decide what main films will play starting that Friday. On Tuesday and Wednesday, we set the showtimes for the upcoming week and then update our website and telephone hotline. We also send out a weekly email (which you can receive by signing up at our website). Sometimes, we book a main film a few weeks in advance, which we post on our website’s “Coming Attractions” section.

For our latest Main Attractions plans, visit: CountyTheater.org  (Or call our hotline at 215 345 6789.)

The Way, Way Back
USA – Nat Faxon and Jim Rash
1 hr 43 min

THE WAY, WAY BACK is the funny and poignant coming-of-age story of a 14-year-old boy and his summer vacation. Having a rough time fitting in, he finds an unexpected mentor in the wild manager of “Water Wizz” park. Directed by the co-writers of The Descendants, this endearing film has the feel of a Little Miss Sunshine type movie. With Steve Carrell, Toni Collette, Allison Janney, Sam Rockwell, and Liam James.

Frances Ha
USA - Noah Baumbach – 1 hr 26 min

This is the latest from director Noah Baumbach. It features Greta Gerwig, doing a typical turn as a twenty-something in Manhattan. She’s trying to make it as a dancer and not having great success. The film – shot in black and white – affectionately dissects the over-educated “bohemian” young. Its clever script is immediate and charming and reminds one of Woody Allen from the golden Annie Hall period. Gerwig brings a wonderful lightness and joy to her role.

Before Midnight
USA - Richard Linklater – 1 hr 48 min

The third film in the series of romantic dramas directed by Richard Linklater, starring Ethan Hawke and Julie Delpy, and following Before Sunrise (1995) and Before Sunset (2004). We meet Jesse and Celine nine years on in Greece. It’s been almost two decades since their first meeting on that train bound for Vienna. They are now married, but will love last? As with the previous films, Linklater shares screenplay credit with both actors.

Unfinished Song
Main Attractions

Kon-Tiki
Norway - Joachim Ronning & Espen Sandberg - 1 hr 59 min
KON-TIKI presents a sweeping adventure about a Norwegian scientist’s voyage across the Pacific on a handmade balsa wood raft to prove that early settlers from South America populated Polynesia. It features stunning cinematography in this gorgeously mounted feature. This is filmmaking of great ambition and ability that beautifully shows the epic spectacle of the voyage.

The East
USA - Zal Batmanglij - 1 hr 56 min
THE EAST is a suspenseful and provocative espionage thriller. Brit Marling stars as an operative in a private intelligence firm who is selected to infiltrate “The East”, an anarchist group that targets corporations for their “environmental crimes.” But as she proceeds, she begins to question where her true loyalties lie. This film delivers a consistently tense, morally alert story with plenty of cinematic appeal. Featuring Brit Marling, Alexander Skarsgard, Ellen Page, Julia Ormond, and Patricia Clarkson.

In the House
French – François Ozon - 1 hr 45 min w/subtitles
The latest from Francois Ozon is about a sixteen-year-old boy who writes about the family of a fellow student in essays for his French teacher. Faced with this gifted and unusual pupil, the teacher rediscovers his own enthusiasm, but the boy's involvement unleashes a series of unanticipated events. Dark, yet wryly funny like Hitchcock, IN THE HOUSE is brilliantly directed. With Fabrice Luchini, Kristin Scott Thomas, and Emmanuelle Seigner.

Stories We Tell
USA - Sarah Polley - 1 hr 48 min
In this inspired, genre-twisting new film, writer/director Sarah Polley attempts to "be a detective in my own life" to learn more about her late mother and her elusive father. She employs an artful combination of family interviews, reconstructions and super-8 home movies to uncover family secrets and lies. She paints the portrait of a complicated, but loving family in this deeply personal film.

Unfinished Song
UK - Paul Andrew Williams – 1 hr 33 min
A wonderfully heart-warming story of a loving marriage between grumpy old pensioner Arthur (Terence Stamp) and the ever-cheerful Marion (Vanessa Redgrave). Arthur does not participate in his wife's singing with an unconventional local choir. But when heartbreak strikes, he is forced to re-think his outlook on life. With steady perseverance from the group, he slowly begins to come out of his shell and reconnect with the world.

Limited Engagements
We try to play each of our Main Attractions films for a full multi-week run. Sometimes, however, we are unable to play a film in a timely or complete way, and it becomes a question of either squeezing it in or not playing it at all. We then often schedule that film for a couple of mid-week screenings, called Limited Engagements. Make sure that you sign up for our weekly email blast, so that you don’t miss these short, last-chance screenings.
Hollywood Classics
Every week this summer, the stars of Hollywood’s Golden Age return to the silver screen: Clark Gable, Gene Kelly, Veronica Lake, Jimmy Stewart, Vivien Leigh, Ingrid Bergman, Humphrey Bogart, the list goes on and on. Memorable acting in great films. See these Hollywood classics the way they were intended to be seen: on the big screen in a packed auditorium.

Free for our young patrons: These Hollywood Classics are great for any age audience—and this entire Classics series is free for patrons 18 years old or younger.

After Dark
The films in this series are edgier. They’re often profane, violent, and scary. They are NOT for the entire family. Are they new classics in the making? You be the judge.

Be an Insider: Come often and be rewarded. Pick up the 2013 Hollywood Insider card at the start of the summer. For each film you watch, whether a Classic or After Dark, you’ll get a punch on the card. Get 6 punches (at any of our theaters) and you’ll earn a free pass. Get 12 and you will receive a restaurant coupon. Or, if you dress “in the theme” of the movie— you get a free popcorn. (Check website for details.)

Singin’ in the Rain
1952 - 1 hr 43 min - USA - color - DCP
MGM - d: Stanley Donen, Gene Kelly
w/ Gene Kelly, Donald O’Connor, Debbie Reynolds

Gene Kelly, Debbie Reynolds and Donald O’Connor combine their talents in perhaps the greatest big-screen musical ever made. When Hollywood attempts the transition from silent films to talkies, a matinee idol hopes to make the cut. But he’s hampered by a silent-movie queen with a voice like fingernails on a blackboard.

Chinatown
1974 – 2 hr 11 min – USA – color – DCP

CHINATOWN, the quintessential neo-noir, is a reworked Hammett-Chandler style mystery set in 1937 Los Angeles. Jack Nicholson plays a private eye who’s in over his head in a complex case that stays a few twists ahead of him. Robert Towne’s screenplay is sharp and Roman Polanski’s dark direction is even sharper. Femme fatale Dunaway and sinister developer Huston are perfect.

The 39 Steps
1935 – 1 hr 27 min – UK – b/w – DCP
d: Alfred Hitchcock

An early British-made Hitchcock with his trademark “mistaken-man” storyline. The film’s bewildered hero eludes police in a wild chase across Scotland—all the while handcuffed to a beautiful woman. Hitchcock’s trademark use of timing, atmosphere, and comedy fully flowered in this classic.
The Audience
Captured LIVE on June 13, 2013, from London’s Gielgud Theatre
Helen Mirren reprises her Academy Award winning role as Queen Elizabeth II in this highly-anticipated West End production. The play imagines a series of pivotal meetings between the queen and her prime ministers – from Churchill to Cameron - sometimes intimate, sometimes explosive.

The Great Escape
1963 - 2 hr 52 min - USA - color - DCP
United Artists - d: John Sturges
w/ Steve McQueen, James Garner, Richard Attenborough, Charles Bronson
This epic WWII adventure-thriller centers on an audacious plan by Allied prisoners-of-war to stage a massive breakout from an "escape-proof" German prison camp. With a fantastic ensemble cast and multiple story lines.

Casablanca
1942 - 1 hr 42 min - USA - b/w - DCP - Warner Bros - d: Michael Curtiz - w/ Humphrey Bogart, Ingrid Bergman, Claude Rains
The Bogart film of all Bogart films, with nightclub owner Rick fighting his cynicism to choose between love and honor. Containing one memorable scene after another, only to be topped by one of the greatest endings ever. Co-star Ingrid Bergman simply glows on the screen. Don’t miss this annual screening with an appreciative packed house.

Safety Last!
1923 - 1 hr 10 min - DCP - b/w - d: Fred C. Newmeyer, Sam Taylor · w/ Harold Lloyd · silent with music
SAFETY LAST! stars comic genius Harold Lloyd in his most iconic role. When a store clerk organizes a contest to climb the outside of a tall building, circumstances force him to make the perilous climb himself. With a torrent of perfectly executed gags and astonishing stunts, this is one of the greatest silent films of all time. Newly digitally restored for its 90th Anniversary.

This classic action film launched Bruce Willis into superstardom.

New Hope Film Festival
Pechorin
2011 - 1 hr 35 min - Russia - Roman Khrusch · w/ subtitles
PECHORIN is a vivid character study of a dying soldier recollecting his life. Portrayed as a series of flashbacks, these memories build a portrait of a man divided between his honorable actions and his harsh judgement of his own decisions. The evening will also include the short “Saving Bella” by Doylestown-native Alyssa Achuff. We are excited to welcome back the New Hope Film Festival.

Vertigo
1958 - 2 hr 8 min - USA - color - DCP
Paramount · d: Alfred Hitchcock · w/ James Stewart, Kim Novak
VERTIGO is the crowning achievement of Hitchcock’s artistry. Jimmy Stewart plays a detective with a fear of heights who has a powerful obsession with a young woman played by Kim Novak. Great cinematography, great action, great music, great filmmaking. Voted the top film of all time by the Sight and Sound critics poll.

Universal · d: Orson Welles · w/ Charlton Heston, Orson Welles, Janet Leigh
Orson Welles’ noir classic. Mexican narcotics detective Charlton Heston sees his honeymoon cut short when a car crossing the U.S.-Mexico border explodes in front of him. He mounts an investigation, but soon locks horns with an American cop played by Welles, who plays fast and loose with the evidence. One of Welles’ best films, with great acting and stunning black and white cinematography.

d: Terence Young - w/ Sean Connery, Claudine Auger, Adolfo Celi

Sunset Boulevard
1950 – 1 hr 50 min – USA – b/w – DCP
Paramount – d: Billy Wilder – w/ Gloria Swanson, William Holden
A great film noir about a faded and deluded movie star and the hack writer she “keeps” to help script her comeback project. The cinematography is stunning, the story is twisted, and Billy Wilder is deliciously cynical. The underside of Hollywood has never been darker.

Hiway: Aug 29 Thurs 7:00

The Treasure of the Sierra Madre
1948 – 2 hr 6 min – USA – b/w – HD Digital
A classic tale of adventure helmed by John Huston, TREASURE follows a trio of gold prospectors who strike it rich in Mexico and agree to split the take. Then paranoia and greed, as well as bandits, descend on them and their plans begin to come undone. Humphrey Bogart is superb.

Gone with the Wind
w/ Clark Gable, Vivien Leigh
Director Victor Fleming’s epic stars Vivien Leigh as self-absorbed, headstrong Scarlett O’Hara, a Southern Belle who meets her match in Rhett Butler, played by Clark Gable. It’s a sweeping story that starts just as the Civil War is breaking out. One of the most monumental of all Hollywood films, we are pleased to present this on the big screen in a superbly restored digital version. With one intermission.

Robocop
1987 – 1 hr 42 min – USA – color – DCP
d: Paul Verhoeven – w/ Peter Weller, Nancy Allen, Dan O’Herlihy
In Paul Verhoeven’s landmark sci-fi thriller, a monolithic corporation controlling a futuristic, crime-riddled Detroit transforms a dead cop into a cybernetic law-enforcement unit. ROBOCOP is successful at cleaning up crime, but draws the attention of other, more sinister, forces.

High schooler Ferris Bueller convinces his parents and school that he’s sick in bed - and then hits the streets of Chicago with his girlfriend and best friend for a day of fun. Billy Wilder masterfully walks the fine line between comedy and drama in this sophisticated classic. An insurance clerk lends his apartment to various higher-ups for their amorous affairs. But his fast track to an executive suite gets derailed when he becomes involved with his boss’ latest conquest.
