Main Attractions

What main films will play at the County? This section lists the Main Attractions that we intend to play in the coming weeks. Additional unlisted films will also become available. This list is only an educated guess, though, since film release plans often change.

When will these main films play?
Scheduling our Main Attractions is week-to-week. On Monday, we decide what main films will play starting that Friday. On Tuesday and Wednesday, we set the showtimes for the upcoming week and then update our website and telephone hotline. We also send out a weekly email (which you can receive by signing up at our website). Sometimes, we book a main film a few weeks in advance, which we post on our website's “Coming Attractions” section.

For our latest Main Attractions plans, visit: CountyTheater.org. (Or call our hotline at 215 345 6789.)

Grace of Monaco
France/USA - Olivier Dahan
Six years after Grace Kelly’s storybook life led her to become the Princess of Monaco, the actress weighs an offer to resume her career in Hollywood while helping her country in a dispute with France. Starring Nicole Kidman as Kelly and Tim Roth as Monaco’s Prince Rainier III. Directed by Olivier Dahan (La Vie en Rose).

12 Years a Slave
USA - Steve McQueen - 2 hr 13 min
In the pre-Civil War United States, a free black man from upstate New York is abducted and sold into slavery. Facing this overwhelming injustice, he struggles to stay alive and to retain his dignity. In the twelfth year of his unforgettable odyssey, a chance meeting with a Canadian abolitionist alters everything. Based on a true story. With Chiwetel Ejiofor, Michael Fassbender, Brad Pitt, Paul Dano, Benedict Cumberbatch, and Paul Giamatti.

Haute Cuisine
France - Christian Vincent - 1 hr 35 min w/subtitles
The business of food is fast becoming a subgenre of its own. In HAUTE CUISINE, we’re led inside the Elysee Palace in Paris for an engaging drama about the woman who became the head chef for president Francois Mitterrand. Despite jealous resentment from the other male kitchen staff, she quickly establishes herself, thanks to her indomitable spirit and her love of fine cuisine. A likeable, light-hearted film with a ton of food and kitchen preparations!
Limited Engagements

We try to play each of our Main Attractions films for a full multi-week run. Sometimes, however, we are unable to play a film in a timely or complete way, and it becomes a question of either squeezing it in or not playing it at all. We then often schedule that film for a couple of mid-week screenings, called Limited Engagements. Make sure that you sign up for our weekly email blast, so that you don’t miss these short, last-chance screenings.
Special Programs

In addition to our first-run Main Attractions, we present special programming throughout the year. Our Special Programs are generally one-time events and include a diverse collection of independent and classic films, screenings with local filmmakers, community events, and stage productions broadcast from Europe’s top performing arts venues.

This fall, our series includes restorations of foreign masterpieces, rare silent comedy shorts, monster movie classics, local independent films, and a new season from London’s National Theatre.

Please note that this brochure contains selections scheduled for the Ambler, County, and Hiway Theaters.

Ambler: Sept 12 Thurs 7:30
County: Sept 18 Wed 7:30

This Time Tomorrow
2012 - 1 hr 22 min - color - HD Digital
d: Shane Bissett
On the eve of what may be the end of the world, Stacey decides he wants to see his ex-girlfriend, Parker. Though not entirely convinced of impending doom, she agrees to spend the day with him. They bump into old friends and fall into old patterns, all the while struggling to embrace the present and not focus on the past. Followed by a Q&A with writer/director Shane Bissett and cast and crew. Free for members.

Ambler: Sept 26 Thurs 7:30
County: Oct 9 Wed 7:30

New Digital Restoration
Grand Illusion
1937 - 1 hr 54 min - b/w - DCP
d: Jean Renoir - w/ subtitles
The 75th Anniversary restoration of one of the masterpieces of cinema, hailed as one of the greatest films ever made. Jean Renoir’s antwar film stars Jean Gabin and Pierre Fresnay as French soldiers held in a World War I German prison camp, and Erich von Stroheim as the unforgettable German Captain von Rauffenstein.
This Special Programs series contains the fixed schedules for the County Theater, Ambler Theater, and the Hiway Theater.

County: Oct 16 Wed 5:45

Movie Meals

Big Night
1996 - 1 hr 47 min - color - digital
d: Stanley Tucci
The Vine and Fig Tree Bistro will be bringing another cinema feast to life. Chef Abbate will be returning to the epic Italian feast from Big Night and cooking up a special celebratory dinner. In the film, an Italian restaurant run by immigrant brothers is on the verge of bankruptcy. The siblings risk everything when they get the chance to cook up a feast for bandleader Louis Prima. Complimentary hors d’oeuvre and wine will be served prior to the screening. Tickets available for just the movie or the movie paired with the meal.

County: Oct 17 Thurs 7:30

Creature From the Black Lagoon
1954 - 1 hr 19 min - b/w - DCP - Universal
d: Jack Arnold
A strange prehistoric beast lurks in the depths of the Amazonian jungle. A group of scientists try to capture the animal and bring it back to civilization for study. A legend in the history of B-movies and one of the original films to make use of the 3D craze. This new digital restoration presents this “classic” in all of its eye-popping glory.

County: Oct 23 Wed 7:30

LIVE MUSIC by Not So Silent Cinema

Nosferatu
1922 - 1 hr 21 min - b/w - digital
d: F.W. Murnau
This amazing silent film is presented with live music by the group Not So Silent Cinema from an original score of Klezmer motifs, Gypsy grooves, avant-garde textures, and classic horror effects. It’s still one of the scariest Dracula adaptations ever made! Murnau’s silent classic is the perfect way to get in the Halloween mood.

Ambler: Oct 30 Wed 7:30

The Wolf Man
1941 - 1 hr 10 min - b/w - DCP - Universal
d: George Waggner
Lon Chaney, Jr. stars in this horror classic about a practical man who returns to his ancestral home in Wales and saves a local girl from a werewolf. But he is bitten during the attack. Cursed by the werewolf’s bite, he suffers torturous full-moon transformations and tries to escape the townsfolk who hunt him. With Claude Rains and Ralph Bellamy.

County: Oct 31 Thurs 7:30

Hiway: Oct 31 Thurs 7:00

The Mummy
1932 - 1 hr 13 min - b/w - DCP - Universal
d: Karl Freund
When British archaeologists uncover the ancient sarcophagus of a mummified Egyptian priest, they foolishly ignore its warning not to open the box. Now brought back to life, the mummy tries to resurrect the soul of his long-dead love. Boris Karloff stars in one of his most memorable monster roles.
This Special Programs series contains the fixed schedules for the County Theater, Ambler Theater, and the Hiway Theater.

Affiliated Benefits Expand:

We welcome the Hiway Theater in Jenkintown to the Renew family of theaters. Being a member of any one of our sibling theaters - the County, Ambler, or Hiway - will give you reduced admission at the others. It will also give you additional opportunities to see these classic films on the silver screen. Join us in wishing good luck and success to this wonderfully restored classic theater in Jenkintown as it embarks on the next chapter of its history.

Grace Kelly & Hitch

Muse to director Alfred Hitchcock, Grace Kelly starred in three of his films before leaving stardom to become the Princess of Monaco.

County: Nov 13 Wed 7:30
Dial M for Murder (3D)
1954 - 1 hr 45 min - color - DCP - Warner Bros - d: Alfred Hitchcock
Hitchcock used the new 3D technology to make this masterpiece of intrigue and double-cross about a man who concocts a perfect plan to kill his wife.

County: Nov 20 Wed 7:30
Rear Window
1954 - 1 hr 52 min - color - DCP - Paramount - d: Alfred Hitchcock
This stylish Hitchcock thriller is about a photographer, played by Jimmy Stewart, who is confined to his apartment with a broken leg. He proceeds to spy on his neighbors and soon suspects that he's uncovered a murder.

County: Dec 4 Wed 7:30

Local Filmmaker Jeremy Kipp Walker
The History of Future Folk
2012 - 1 hr 26 min - color - DCP - d: John Mitchell and Jeremy Kipp Walker
The origin story of the “real life” alien bluegrass band, Future Folk, that has been playing for NYC audiences for the better part of a decade. Although Trius has been sent to begin the colonization of Earth, he abandons his mission upon hearing music for the first time. When an assassin from his home world arrives, Trius persuades him to join his bluegrass band and save his adopted planet. Followed by a Q&A with director Jeremy Kipp Walker and a live performance by Future Folk. Free for members.

Hiway: Nov 20 Wed 7:00
Ambler: Dec 5 Thurs 7:30

Local Filmmaker Joe Medeiros
The Missing Piece: The Truth About the Man who Stole the Mona Lisa
2012 - 1 hr 25 min - HD Digital - d: Joe Medeiros
This is the startling story of the man who stole the Mona Lisa from the Louvre in 1911 (yes, this really happened - it was gone for two years!), his 84-year-old daughter who believes that he did it for patriotic reasons, and the filmmaker who spent more than 30 years trying to find the truth for himself, and now for her. Followed by a Q&A with director Joe Medeiros. Free for members.

In collaboration with the Michener Museum’s exhibit “From Philadelphia to Monaco: Grace Kelly Beyond the Icon,” which runs from October 28, 2013 to January 26, 2014.
Farm Fresh Film Series
Food Stamped
2010 - 1 hr - color - HD Digital - d: Shira and Yoav Potash
The Doylestown Food Co-op and Bucks County Foodshed Alliance present the next film in their ongoing series. FOOD STAMPED is an informative and humorous film following a couple as they attempt to eat a healthy, well-balanced diet on a food stamp budget. Tickets: $10 General and $8 for Food Coop Members.

To Catch a Thief
1955 - 1 hr 46 min - color - DCP - Paramount
d: Alfred Hitchcock
Grace Kelly's final film for Hitchcock stars Cary Grant as a reformed jewel thief suspected of returning to his former occupation. In order to clear his name he must ferret out the real thief with the help of the pampered heiress. His plan backfires, and then the plot changes.

Starting in November, members of the County, Hiway, and Ambler Theaters are invited to this exciting new series at the Ambler Theater.

Rolling Stone film critic Peter Travers will present monthly sneak previews of highly-anticipated upcoming films at the Ambler Theater. Travers will introduce the film and interview the director and/or cast after the screening. We’ll be connected to him via the internet on our screen. We’ll also have a chance to ask questions and interact through Twitter and directly via Skype.

This will be open to MEMBERS ONLY. Dates and details to be announced soon.

We anticipate that Alexander Payne’s NEBRASKA will be first up in November. This is Payne’s latest following the critically acclaimed The Descendants. The film follows an aging father, played by Bruce Dern, who makes the long trip from Montana to Nebraska to “collect his lottery winnings,” while accompanied by his estranged son.

Special Thanks:

The County Theater receives funding support through a grant from the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts, a state agency funded by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency.
We are thrilled to present another season of performances from London’s famed National Theatre. The new season includes three groundbreaking new Shakespeare productions and a special celebration of the National Theatre’s 50th Anniversary, which includes encore performances from previous season and a special celebratory event.

Tickets: $18 General; $16 Members

The Audience
2 hr 38 min (including one intermission)
Helen Mirren reprises her Academy Award-winning role as Queen Elizabeth II in this acclaimed West End production. The play imagines a series of pivotal meetings between the queen and her prime ministers - from Churchill to Cameron - sometimes intimate, sometimes explosive.

Macbeth
2 hr (with no intermission)
Manchester International Festival’s electrifying production of Macbeth, with Kenneth Branagh as the title character in his first Shakespeare performance in over a decade and Alex Kingston as Lady Macbeth. Directed by Rob Ashford and Branagh, this distinctive production of Shakespeare’s tragic tale of ambition and treachery unfolds within the walls of an intimate deconsecrated Manchester church.

Othello
3 hr 15 min (including one intermission)
A major new production of Shakespeare’s celebrated play about the destructive power of jealousy. Othello, newly married to Desdemona, is appointed leader of a military operation. Iago, passed over for promotion in favour of the young Cassio, persuades Othello that Cassio and Desdemona are having an affair. With Adrian Lester in the title role and Rory Kinnear as Iago. Directed by Nicholas Hytner.

ENCORE: Frankenstein
2 hr 30 min (including one intermission)
Danny Boyle directed a sensational production with Benedict Cumberbatch and Jonny Lee Miller alternating roles as Victor Frankenstein and his "creature." Childlike in his innocence but grotesque in form, Frankenstein’s bewildered creature is cast out into a hostile universe by his maker. Originally broadcast in 2011.
National Theatre: 50 Years on Stage
2 hrs with no intermission
To celebrate its 50th anniversary, the National Theatre presents a special performance, broadcast to cinemas around the world. From Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead to The History Boys, from The Mysteries to Angels in America, from Guys and Dolls to War Horse – Nicholas Hytner directs a thrilling evening of live theatre, with rare glimpses from the archive, featuring many of the original actors who have performed on the National’s stages over the past five decades.

ENCORE: The Habit of Art
2 hr (with no intermission)
An encore broadcast of Alan Bennett’s acclaimed play starring Richard Griffiths, Alex Jennings and Frances de la Tour. An imagined meeting between composer Benjamin Britten and poet W H Auden. It looks at the unsettling desires of two difficult men, and at the ethics of biography. It reflects on growing old, on creativity and inspiration, and on persisting when all passion’s spent: ultimately, on the habit of art. Originally broadcast in 2010.

Coriolanus
3 hr (including two intermissions)
Donmar Warehouse’s production of Coriolanus, Shakespeare’s searing tragedy of political manipulation and revenge. When an old adversary threatens Rome, the city calls once more on her hero and defender: Coriolanus. But he has enemies at home too. Famine threatens the city, the citizens’ hunger swells to an appetite for change, and on returning from the field Coriolanus must confront the march of realpolitik and the voice of an angry people. With Tom Hiddleston and Mark Gatiss. Directed by Josie Rourke.

The Bolshoi Ballet
Le Corsaire
3 hr (including two intermissions)
With a dashing pirate, a kidnapped maiden, and a dramatic shipwreck, LE CORSAIRE is a dazzling ballet experience. In this new staging from Moscow’s Bolshoi Ballet, famed choreographer Alexei Ratmansky and Yuri Burlaka refresh Petipa’s original choreography, inspired by Lord Byron’s poem, to make this classic a must-see for every ballet lover. Starring prima ballerina Svetlana Lunkina, Ruslan Skvortsov, Andrei Merkuriev and Nina Kaptsova. ($18/$16)

The Bolshoi Ballet
Spartacus
3 hr 15 min (including two intermissions)
The Bolshoi’s grandiose epic SPARTACUS recounts the story of a Roman slave’s fight for freedom. With its famous Khachaturian score, since the 1960s it has been considered one of the greatest ballets in the Bolshoi repertoire. The choreography by Yuri Grigorovich fills the Bolshoi stage with dynamic scenes of tension and conflict, and gives full expression to the virility and strength for which Russia’s male dancers are renowned. ($18/$16)

Teatro alla Scala Opening Night
La Traviata
2 hr 40 min (including one intermission)
As one of the most widely performed operas in the world, Verdi’s immensely popular La Traviata requires a single soprano to exude dramatic intuition, presence, and soul for a character that is alive and sorrowful until her final breath. With a cast led by the one of the most famous contemporary Violettas, Diana Damrau, this brand new production of La Traviata presented at Teatro alla Scala’s Opening Night is a special event not to miss. ($18/$16)
