Main Attractions

What main films will play at the County? This section lists the Main Attractions that we intend to play in the coming weeks. Additional unlisted films will also become available. This list is only an educated guess, though, since film release plans often change.

When will these main films play?
Scheduling our Main Attractions is week-to-week. On Monday, we decide what main films will play starting that Friday. On Tuesday and Wednesday, we set the showtimes for the upcoming week and then update our website and telephone hotline. We also send out a weekly email (which you can receive by signing up at our website). Sometimes, we book a main film a few weeks in advance, which we post on our website’s “Coming Attractions” section.

For our latest Main Attractions plans, visit: CountyTheater.org. (Or call our hotline at 215 345 6789.)

Boyhood
USA - 2 hr 43 min - Richard Linklater
Twelve years in the making, Richard Linklater’s latest drama follows a boy from age 5 to age 18. Shooting started in 2002, and the crew and actors got together every year to pick up the story of the characters’ lives. Linklater uses this extended timeline to blend difficult events and everyday routine into the real drama of family life. With Ellar Coltrane as the boy and Ethan Hawke and Patricia Arquette as his divorced parents.

Begin Again
USA - 1hr 44min - John Carney
John Carney, who wrote and directed Once, brings us the story of two lost souls who find each other in New York. Mark Ruffalo is a rumpled, self-destructive pop music producer who has lost his job. Keira Knightley is a singer-songwriter whose aspiring-rock-star boyfriend has gotten a solo contract and left her behind. With Catherine Keener, Hailee Steinfeld, Adam Levine and Yasiin Bey.

Third Person
Various countries - 2hr 17 min - Paul Haggis
Centered on the mysterious novel that Liam Neeson’s character is writing, THIRD PERSON interweaves three couples’ stories of love, intrigue, and betrayal from New York City to Paris to Rome. James Franco, Mila Kunis, Olivia Wilde, Kim Basinger, Adrien Brody, and Maria Bello bring the stories to life, but which elements are real and which are just imagined? Written and directed by Paul Haggis (Crash).
Main Attractions

Limited Engagements
We try to play each of our Main Attractions films for a full multi-week run. Sometimes, however, we are unable to play a film in a timely or complete way, and it becomes a question of either squeezing it in or not playing it at all. We then often schedule that film for a couple of mid-week screenings, called Limited Engagements. Make sure that you sign up for our weekly email, so that you don’t miss these short, last-chance screenings.

The Trip to Italy
UK - 1 hr 48 min - Michael Winterbottom
Steve Coogan and Rob Brydon star in this follow-up to their 2010 comedy, The Trip. This time they’ve been engaged by a British newspaper to chronicle a tour of high-end restaurants and historical sights along the Italian peninsula. Director Michael Winterbottom gives free reign to his stars’ improvisational gifts, while juxtaposing beautiful scenery, sumptuous food, funny reflections on art and literature, and constant celebrity impressions.

Love is Strange
USA - 1 hr 38 min - Ira Sachs
Alfred Molina and John Lithgow star in this tender, quiet film about a gay couple of 39 years whose lives are turned upside-down after they finally get married. Molina is fired from his job and they then have to vacate their apartment and crash with family and friends. Molina and Lithgow are wonderful and provide the heartfelt core of this touching ensemble piece.

Land Ho!
USA - 1 hr 35 min - Aaron Katz & Martha Stephens
One of the most enjoyable films to come out of this year’s Sundance Festival. Two ex-brothers-in-law take a trip together to Iceland to reconnect. One is a brash, Southern charmer and the other, a reserved Australian. What results is a charming, funny, beautiful road trip. Meals are eaten, spas are visited, secrets are revealed, and their friendship is tested.

Magic in the Moonlight
USA/UK - Woody Allen
Woody Allen returns to France, this time to the glamorous Riviera of the 1920s. Emma Stone, Colin Firth, and Marcia Gay Harden lead the cast of this romantic comedy about an Englishman who is brought in to investigate a possible swindle. Personal and professional complications then ensue.

Life of Crime
USA - 1 hr 34 min - Daniel Schechter
An Elmore Leonard crime caper with fun performances by an ensemble cast including Jennifer Aniston, John Hawkes, Tim Robbins, Will Forte, Yasiin Bey, and Isla Fisher. Robbins plays a real estate vulture and Aniston is his wife who gets kidnapped. He decides not to pay the ransom. This delightful film is on a Get Shorty level of pure enjoyment.

A SMALL FAMILY BUSINESS, by award-winning playwright Alan Ayckbourn, returns to the National Theatre. The Sting

1973 - 2 hr 9 min - color - DCP - United Artists - d: George Roy Hill - w/ Paul Newman, Robert Redford, Robert Shaw

Paul Newman and Robert Redford star in this entertaining action comedy. When a friend is killed by a mob boss, two con men try to get even by pulling off a big con. THE STING is built with classic movie-making style and the story unfolds in a smooth and pleasurable way complete with twists and turns and last-minute surprises.

Rope

1948 - 1 hr 20 min - color - DCP - Warner Bros - d: Alfred Hitchcock - w/ Jimmy Stewart, Farley Granger, John Dall

In this classic Hitchcock, two college chums kill a friend just for the thrill of it, hide the body in their apartment, and then invite friends and family over for a dinner party. Jimmy Stewart stars as the boys’ professor who begins to suspect that something is amiss. The film was Hitch’s first in color and was shot in uninterrupted ten minute takes, which makes for a very distinctive look and feel.

The Palm Beach Story

1942  1 hr 28 min - b/w - DCP - Paramount d: Preston Sturges - w/ Claudette Colbert, Joel McCrea, Rudy Vallee, Mary Astor

Preston Sturges was at the height of his powers with this classic screwball comedy. Claudette Colbert flees from her proud and penniless husband, Joel McCrea, into the ridiculous arms of yachtsman billionaire Rudy Vallee. Hilarious, irresistible, and impeccably cast, this fast-paced comedy has an abundance of rapid-fire dialogue, improbable set-ups, and hilarious supporting characters.

High Noon

1952 - 1 hr 25 min - b/w - DCP - United Artists - d: Fred Zinnemann - w/Gary Cooper, Grace Kelly

Gary Cooper stars as a small town sheriff who is retiring from office and about go on his honeymoon. But then he’s informed that the leader of the Miller gang, whom he sent to prison, is due on the 12:00 train and looking for revenge. Rather than run, he looks for help from his deputies and the town folk, but soon finds that he must stand alone. This classic Western still retains its profound allegorical power.

Casablanca

1942 - 1 hr 42 min - b/w - DCP - Warner Bros - d: Michael Curtiz - w/ Humphrey Bogart, Ingrid Bergman, Claude Rains

The Bogart film of all Bogart films, with nightclub owner Rick fighting his cynicism to choose between love and duty. Containing one memorable scene after another, only to be topped by one of the greatest endings ever. Co-star Ingrid Bergman simply glows on the screen. Don’t miss our annual screening with an appreciative packed house.
The Big Lebowski

The Dude returns to the Ambler for the annual “Little Lebowski Nite.” With trivia, a costume competition, and some stupefying prizes. Some Like It Hot
1959 – 2 hrs – b/w – DCP – United Artists

Jack Lemmon and Tony Curtis star as a pair of musicians who accidentally witness a gangland massacre. To escape the mobsters, they dress as women and hide in an all-women’s band. And then things really heat up with the arrival of Marilyn Monroe, the band’s curvy, ukulele-playing singer. This legendary screwball comedy was voted AFI’s #1 Comedy of All Time.

The Ambler Theater’s 8th Annual Little Lebowski Nite
Ambler: July 16 Wed 7:00

Groundhog Day
1993 - 1 hr 41 min - color - DCP - d: Harold Ramis - w/Bill Murray, Andie MacDowell, Chris Elliott

Bill Murray is a self-absorbed weatherman sent, yet again, to cover the Groundhog Day festivities in Punxsutawney. He wakes up the next morning to find that it’s Groundhog Day all over again, as it will be the next day, and the next, and the next. Murray carries this romantic comedy with an uncanny effortlessness as he goes from humor to pathos in his search for love and the meaning of life.

Desk Set
1957 – 1 hr 43 min – color – DCP - 20th Century Fox – d: Walter Lang – w/ Spencer Tracy, Katharine Hepburn
This Hepburn-Tracy romantic comedy revolves around the early introduction of computers into the workplace. Katharine Hepburn is the head of a television research department, threatened by the arrival of efficiency expert Spencer Tracy and his computers. The two go head-to-head in a playful script that is still relevant today.

Sabrina
1954 – 1 hr 53 min – b/w – DCP
Paramount – d: Billy Wilder – w/Audrey Hepburn, Humphrey Bogart, William Holden
The charming Cinderella story of two rich brothers and the chauffeur’s daughter Sabrina. Bogart is all work and Holden is all play, but when Sabrina (Hepburn) returns from Paris all grown up and glamorous, both fall under her spell. Audrey Hepburn is especially lovely in her second movie role. Edith Head received an Oscar for costume design, but it was designer Hubert de Givenchy who gave Hepburn her famous look.

A Hard Day's Night
1964 – 1 hr 27 min – b/w – DCP - UK - United Artists - d: Richard Lester - w/ John Lennon, Paul McCartney, George Harrison, Ringo Starr
This delightful 1964 “documentary” about a day in the life of The Beatles moves with such joy, humor and fluidity that you can’t help getting swept up. Not only has the film not dated, it looks fresher than ever. The zigzag cutting and camera moves, the jaunty ironies, the playfulness of the boys’ acting - it’s all still completely fabulous. And then there’s the music. Ah, does it get any better?
